Herbert Works on New Irish Operetta.

GOSSIP OF THE STAGE MANY CLASS REUNIONS

Mme. Sembrich, accompanied by her husband, Guillaume Stengel, and a doing touches to the score of the Irish ness. operetta he has written for Klas & Er-Grace Clark of New York, and the im

None of the managers is more active priam. King of Troy... trying out plays for the New York theatres than Oliver Morosco, who uses Troilus his Los Angeles theatre for the pur-pose. Two of his recent experiments were "Upstairs and Down," by the Hat-tons, and "Mile a Minute Kendall," by Owen Davis. In the former comedy Courtenay Foote, who has been a camera actor for several years, has re-turned to the stage. Then there was "The Brat," by Maude Fulton, which had success that lasted for some weeks.

Cleofonte Campanini will act as conductor for the Ellis Opera Company, which is to play for two months in the West before the opening of the Chicago which is to play for two life Chicago
West before the opening of the Chicago
West before the opening of the Chicago
Wast before the ope

Gareth Hughes has left for a vacation in the Adirondacks and will be seen when he returns to New York in American origin. In spite of every sign of success at first, both "The Boomer-ang" and "The Show Shop" have been withdrawn after short runs. But Weedon Grossmith is going to produce "The Mis-leading Lady," nevertheless. The usual cheering reports which follow the first lew nights of every American play in London are related of "Daddy Long"

A. H. Woods is still generously dis-posing to his brother managers of the successful plays which he tried out this g. Not content with letting John have "The Dawn," he has parted "Jane O'Day" to Frederick Mc-Kay, who will present Blanche Ring in this drama by Willard Mack. Mr. Woods is a model of unselfishness in thus help-be ing along his colleagues. Since William

A. Brady sold his rights in "Within the Law" to the Selwyns, no such produce next season, must have eard of this rule. He has made the title this new play as dark as his characters on Wednesday.

Class

game will be the spectacular feature of Mrs. Astor's son, the great-great grandchild of the first John Jacob Astor's new play as dark as his characters on Wednesday. y calling it "Sazus Matazus." whatever which he acted at his London theatre two years ago, to play here next season His engagement will be at the Empire

Mairop and recently acted in Rochester, and any states of the graders. Waiforp and recently acted in Rochester, and the graders are quakers. Miss Waldrop with the autumn acters are quakers. Miss waldrop with the second here and the suppose of the fact that announcement has been made of the fact that announcement has been made of the fact that in the grades of the suppose of the second hustes the daughter and Lieux Raymond potter Campbell of San Francisco, who was strong to the suppose of the suppose o

FOR RUSTIC BOWERS SHAKESPEARE PLAY

Summer Exodus Is Begun- Two Hundred and Sixteenth Commencement Opens With "Troilus and Cressida."

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 17 .- The opening event of Vale's elaborate 216th mestic retinue of impressive proportions, commencement programme took place left last night for her summer home at here this evening, when the Dramatic Lake Placid, where she will remain until Association, directed by E. M. Wooley, October. Alma Gluck and Efrem Zim- '11, presented Shakespeare's, "Troilus halist, her husband, who are also to be and Cressida" in honor of the Bard of among the summer dwellers there, left Avon's tercentenary before an audience town on Thursday. Pasquale Amato of which filled the Hyperion Theatre. Rain the Metropolitan Opera House and Mme. prevented the use of the open air amphiamato, who were last summer on Long theatre on the campus. The Yale play-Island, are also at Lake Placid. Victor ers, with the assistance of Coach Wooley, Herbert is now there, putting the finish- interpreted the piece with much clever-langer. The Flonzaley Quartet will be pressionistic scenery was prepared by students in the art school. The cast, the largest that ever appeared in a Yale production, follows:

Hector Troilus		D. O. 1	laidridge Hamilton
Paris	Hie son		obinson. Jr
Deiphobus		A. B.	Campbell
Helenus)	CD. W.	Colton
Aencas 1	Troja	n [C	P. Taft 2
Antenor	commat		or of Cres
Calchas, a		priest, fatt
sida.	taking P	art with	the Greeks
Pandarus.	uncle to	Cressida.
		TO T .	ngstreth 2

Page to Troilus.

Agamemnon, the Greek Gene J. H. Vincent

Many "Old Grads" on Hand. The first contingent of the 2,000 Yale seen when he returns to New York in the performance of a new play to be given by a popular star.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell, who has just arrived in London from her tour in this country, is playing the siren heroine of "Bella Donna," which was revived for her.

Gabriel Dorziat, who played in the drama here with William Faversham, is going to produce "The Hawk" in London.

The first contingent of the 2,000 Yale alumni who will figure as soldiers, infants, princes and grand opera stars during the coming commencement are in town to-night. Among the youngsters from the class of 1861 already here are Simeon E. Baldwin, formerly Governor of Connecticut, and Prof. Franklin B. Dexter, for years Yale's librarian, while in the semi-centenary class of '66 is William W. Farnam, for many years treasurer of Yale.

Twenty-three classes are to hold re-

"The Angel in the House" and "The Ware Case," but London is equally frank in showing its opinion of plays of American origin. In spite of every description of plays of the control of the classes in a big alumni demonstration on the campus.

If Yale was inclined to be at all lacking in the spirit of "preparedness," it's safe to say that when the members of 1906S have finished with their contribution to the commencement alumni high into the control that it ime. On the night of April 14 the Titanic struck and was sliced by an ice-berg which had been reported to the bridge by the lookouts.

The Astors were in their stateroom at the time. They were not disturbed, and live the life of the regulars in their tents on the Yale encampment. Here they will maintain their own mess table and live according to accepted military discipline except that taps will be sounded at 4 A. M. and reveille at 5:30 A. M.

Class Day on Monday.

something that was perfectly clear to everybody. Laurence Eyre, who wrote the negro play which William Harris, Jr., game will be the spectacular feature of Mrs. Astor's ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Merrill Chapin who are at their country place in Bernardsville, N. J., have at nounced the en-Season.

Edward Peple's farce, written for Oza
Waidrop and recently acted in Rochester, is called "Friend Martha" and its characters are Quakers. Miss Waldrop will be seen here in the play in the autumn.

Hency E. Triend Martha and its characters are Very Company of the second accounting as graduated from the play in the autumn.

The second accounting as graduated from the second from th

MRS. JOHN JACOB ASTOR IS TO BECOME THE BRIDE OF W. K. DICK IN BAR HARBOR for the benefit of each child who shall survive the testator, other than his son, William Vincent Astor, and his daughter, Ava Alice Muriel Astor (both children of the previous marriage), to be held in trust for such child until attaining the age of twenty-one years, with similar provisions as to the disposition of the fund in the event of the death of the child under twenty-one as are above set don't care how difficult divorce and rein most of their ideae, but I believe remarriage should be possible, as marriage is the happiest condition for the individual and the country." The bride's father also upheld the

Mrs. Madeleine Force Astor. Continued from First Page.

"My daughter and Col. Astor are and have been very much in love," he said. "If they were not this marriage would not have taken place."

It was on January 24, 1912, that Col. and Mrs. Astor sailed on the White Star steamship Olympic from this city. Yale alumni have planned a joint reunion with the "1492" dinner on Tuesday night and will join with the other reunion classes in a big alumni demonstration on the maiden voyage of the Olympic's the higgest vestigation.

for his wire, and begin took his bride in his arms and bade her took his bride in his arms and bade her good-by. Then he drew tighter the wraps about her and led her to a lifeboat ates will listen to President Hadley deares will listen to President Hadley deares his baccalaureate address in Wool-action which women were being placed. Col. Astor continued to assure her that there and one-third of the cost of the taxes and one-third of the cost of maintaining the establishment at $40 per line.

A Briefly sold this rights in William

A Briefly sold this rights in William

Ballathrough has been said of the second problem of the place in Philip Barthoomas's "All in the second problem of the place in Philip Barthoomas's "All in second problem of the probl the stellar into effect. He into the scheme into effect. He into the Yale Law School Alumni Association.

In a annual time of the scheme into effect. He into the Yale Law School Alumni Association.

Monday until Thursday and close the Belasco Theatre during the latter part of every week. Mr. Belasco has been unable to put this plan to a trial, as the public insists on crowding into the Belasco Theatre on every possible opportunity.

Katherine La Salle, who has been such an attractive feature in "Hit the Trail Heliday," first made her name in this city in the same theatre in which she ke now to be seen. But she was not she her first appearance here in such an important role.

Dion Boucicault's advice as to a play's title was that it should either be something that nobody understood or else something that nobody understood or else something that nobody Laurence Eyre, who wrote the negro play which William Harris, Jr., the same Monday evening the negro play which William Harris, Jr., the feature of the negro play which William Harris, Jr., the same will be the spectacular feature of the negro play which William Harris, Jr., the same step part of the spectacular feature of the negro play which William Harris, Jr., the same step part of the spectacular feature of the negro play which William Harris, Jr., the new present the negro play which William Harris, Jr., the same step part of the same that the new properties at noon and will be the spectacular feature of the same of the Law School Alumni Association.

Mrs. Astor was among those picked up by the Carpathia, which brought to the Carpathia, which brought the whoch brought to the Carpathia, which brought the whoch be carpathia, which brought to the Carpathia, which brought the trust which brought the trust which she at the pipe by William Play the Carpathia, which brought the president what the Law School Alumni Association.

Are received the Law School Alumni Association.

Are rec

1912. The advent of no American baby had excited more general advance in-terest, and in all the talk about the coming of the child there was always a note of sympathy for the widowed mother. Young John Jacob was a healthy youngster from birth and under under twenty-one as are above set forth in connection with the trust for By the terms of the will but little more than $8,000,000 could in any event be diverted from the main Astor line. In leaving the estate almost intact to his son, Col. Astor followed the example ing to a public purpose was a legacy of $30,000 to St. Paul's School. Col. Astor provided also for the continuance of the Astor cups, annual trophies of the New York Yacht Club.

Maine Laws in the Way of a Sud-

MRS. ASTOR IS SILENT.

Dick of New York and that she would neither confirm nor deny the report of Mrs. Astor, with her young son, arrived in Bar Harbor yesterday morning and were at once taken to Islecote, her arwesterday by the Rev Charles L. Slatsummer home. Shortly after her ar- yesterday by the Rev. Charles L. Slat-rival a terrific rainstorm kept her in- tery, rector of the church. The bride, doors. Bar Harbor residents were surprised at the report which reached here the day after her arrival that her marriage was to take place Monday to the Carried a bouquet of white and yellow marriage was to take place Monday to the Carried a bouquet of white and yellow marriage.

riage was to take place Monday to the Brooklyn banker.

The Maine law will interfere, however, if it really was planned to have the wedding on Monday. Until a little less than two years ago it was possible for residents of another State to come here, apply for a marriage license and the married the same day. By action of the last Legislature, however, non-residents must wait five days from the date of the application before a license will application before a license will

At the town clerk's office this evening it was learned that no license had been applied for, although it was admitted that a Washington summer resident and friend of Mrs. Astor had made arrangements Menday to take out "important legal papers." The town clerk may have been entertaining the idea that the old law was still in force. In the event, however, of an application for a license having been filed next Friday is the first opportunity that the marriage can legally be celebrated here.

Morristown, N. J., June 17.—Five hundred persons attended the wedding of Miss Helen Connett to Frederick F. Turrell of South Orange at the home of the bride's parents at Convent Station to-day. The Rev. Philemont Sturges, rector of St. Peter's Church of Morristown, performed the ceremony. Miss Marion Connett, the bride's sister, was her attendant. George B. Turrell, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. legally be celebrated here.

Bay State Girl's Wedding Attended by Many New Yorkers.

NA CONTRACTOR

Aiken, S. C., and Bar Harbor,
The clauses in Col. Astor's will in which provision was made for his widow were as follows;

To his widow, Madeleine Talma

Force Astor, the town house and stable at the corner of Fifth avenue and Sixty-fifth street, being 125 feet in width on Fifth avenue and 150 feet in length on Sixty-fifth street, together with the printed books, paintings, pictures, engravings, marbles, bronzes statuary and objects of art, plate and silver plated ware, linen, china, glass, household effects, useful and ornamental, therein contained and not here-inbefore otherwise disposed of, to have and to hold the same for so long during her life as she shall remain his widow, and upon her death or re-

Having by certain antenuptial arrangements made certain provisions for his wife, Madeleine Talmage Force

Astor, he leaves to her a trust fund of 5,000,000, she to receive the income of $5,000,000, she to receive the income of such fund for so long during her natural life as she shall remain his widow, and upon the death of his widow or in case of her remarriage, then upon such remarriage the capital of this fund goes to William Vincent

To his widow, Madeleine Talmage

Force Astor, an outright legacy of $100,000, payable immediately upon the testator's death, and all horses and ticles as are otherwise above dis-ther live stock, and all carriages marriage all this property ueathed to the testator's son, William

Miss Ruth Church, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Church of this city, and Delano de Windt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Heyliger de Windt of Winnetka, III., were married to-night in St. James's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Joseph Russell Lynes, rector. Howard Thompson organist, and the Russell Church with the Rev. Joseph Russell Lynes, rector. Howard Thompson organist, and the Russell Church with the Russell Lynes, rector.

HOAR-BROWN.

Danghter of Village President of was best man. Astor has entertained smaller parties at Dobbs Ferry Bride of Boston Man.

Donns Ferry, June 17.—Miss Dorothy Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Franklin Q. Brown, was married to John Hoar of Boston to-day by the Rev. Staney Sermon-Brown in the Zion Episcopal Church, Mr. Brown is president of the village of Dobbs Ferry and a well known was attended to the Winter.

New York broker. Mrs. Brown is one Winter. of the leading women of the village in Winter, charity and social circles.

Samuel Hear was his brother's best nan. The bride's attendants were Misses Phyllis and Sylvia Brown, sisters of the bride; Miss Katherine Fitch, Miss Jo bride; Miss Katherine Fitch, Miss Josephine Tunstall-Smith, the Baroness Vera de Rorp of Baltimore, Miss Ellen W. Eldredse, Miss Christania Snelling and Miss Charlotte Baylles of Boston. The bride's father gave her away.

The ushers were Irving Bolton, Mal-colm Peabody, James C. Turnbull, S. C. Bennett, Richard Wigglesworth, Clarence Belknap, N. C. Bolton, Francis Gray, Clement Ford, George Harding and Ralph Lowell. A reception was held at springhurst following the wedding, after shich Mr. and Mrs. Hoar departed on an automobile trip through New England. They will live in Boston.

DOUGHERTY-CLARK. Singer Becomes Bride of Well Known Marine Painter.

Miss Marian A. Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford C. Clark, was automobiles, and all provisions and supplies belonging to the testator or subject to his disposal at the time of his death, excepting such of said arposed of.

These provisions for his widow are made in lieu of dower and all other claims upon his estate, and until the trust fund of $5,000,000 is set up the of Walter Hampden. Miss Clark made ushers will be Emilio de Gorgorza, Lanher debut last winter as a professional caster Morgan, Samuel N. Hinckley, caster Morgan, cas executors are directed to pay to her an income at the rate of $200,000 a The provision affecting the posthu-mous child follows:

A trust fund of $3,000,000 is created

DAVIES-WILLIAMS.

Young Easton, Pa., Couple Married by Bride's Uncle.

Easton, Pa., June 17.—Miss Myra Jeanette Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Williams, and Evart Gladstone Davies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arjay Davies, both of Easton, were married at the home of the bride to-night by the Rev. W. G. Watkins of Scranton Pa., uncle of the bride, and the Rev. A. M. Gesner of the First Presbyterian under twenty-one as are above set forth in connection with the trust for the daughter.

The provision for the disposition of the fund "in connection with the death of the daughter" is as follows:

"• • In case of her death under twenty-one years it goes according to her will, and in default of a will then unto her issue, if any, and in default of a will or issue surviving her then to William Vincent Astor."

Ava Alice Muriel Astor is now 16 years old.

A. M. Gesner of the First Presbyterian Church.

The bride was graduated from Vassar in 1913 and the bridegroom from Williams in 1912. The matron of honor was Mrs. Carleton Schwab Wagner, a cousin of the bride, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Josephine Irvin of Redlands, Cal.; Marie Louise McNair of Halstead, Kan.; Eleanor Greenberg of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Virginia Wills of New York, Ruth Ayers and Margaret Davies of Easton. The best man was Robert W. Dawies, brother of the bridegroom.

BAKER-HILBURN. Mrs. J. Stuart Blackton's Siste

Wedded Unexpectedly.

Mrs. Ava Willing Astor, the first wife, was not mentioned in the will. The general bequests amounted to about $175,000. Of this sum $100,000 went to friends, four of whom had served as trustees of the Astor estate, and $45,000 to three men who had served him in various capacities. The only bequest which could be construed as contributing to a public purpose was a legacy forward.

Weadea Unexpectedly.

Oyster Bat, L. I., June 17.—Miss London: one of the 100 catalogues of the library of Jay Gould with his autograph and the complete works of O. Henry, with drawings by the author, and three pages of O. Henry's manuscript ton. Arrangements had been made for them to be married in another week, but at a week end party at the Blackbut at a week end them to be married in another week, but at a week end party at the Blackton house they decided to move the date forward.

Miss Hilburn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hilburn of 520 Cocan avenue, Brooklyn; Mr. Baker is the son of Elwood T. Baker of 945 Park place, Brooklyn. When the two announced their intentions, relatives were summoned quickly. Miss Jewel Hilburn, the bride's sister, attended the bride, and the bridegroom's brother, Donald Mitchell Baker, was best man.

Miss Louise A. Mathews, daughter by former marriage of Mrs. Daniel Cohen 400 Riverside Drive, was married to den's Roost his summer home. Mr. Hop-

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., June 17.—Not to be outdone by her father, who was married a week ago, Miss Mabel Conlan, daughter of Assistant Postmaster John R. Conlan, went to New York Thursday

PLAINFIELD, N. J., June 17.—Miss Elizabeth Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Williams of 920 Hillside avenue, and Alan Fitz Randolph, son of Mrs. John J. Fitz Randolph, son of Mrs. John J. Fitz Randolph, were married this evening by the Rev. Dr. J. S. wife and one daughter.

Mrs. George Crawford Clark, to Paul Mrs. George Crawford Clark, to Pau

Mr. Lawrence D. Beggs, was matron of honor. Miss Katharine Ogden was bridesmaid and E. Baldwin Edwards

Du Vivier-Winter.

Miss Ethel M. Winter, daughter of Firemen's As the late Thomas W. Winter, was marked to Ernest H. Du Vivier of this city ters survive. on Wednesday afternoon at her home, 797 Greene avenue, Brooklyn, by the Rev. Dr. Frederick W. Norris. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edith and by her little niece, Ethel York for Newport on July 1 to remain for the summer.

The wedding of Miss Kathleen Howard and Edward Kellogg Baird will take place on June 27 in the chantry of St. Thomas's Church.

Mrs. Charles Mellen, who has been stopping at the Vanderbilt, left there yesterday for her country place in Stockbridge, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic B. Pratt will give a dinner on Wednesday night at their country place, Miss Kathariffe Eugenia Pratt, who will be married to Burton P. Twichell of Hartford at Seamoor, the country place of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Pratt.

Mrs. Allce Martin Davies, daughter of Mrs. William Grove of 21 Ward street, Orange, died yesterday at the Orange Memorial Hospital of peritonitis. He was been in Omaha and spent his Miss Alice Martin Davies, daughter of He was born in McKee 2d on Saturday in Emmanue Church, Great River, L. L. has selected her bridal attendants. They will be the sius, superior sister of Morris Hall, Law-renceville, died at the institution to-day married yesterday noon to Paul Dougherty, a well known marine painter. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents. 1027 Fifth avenue, and was witnessed by about twenty relatives of the couple.

Mr. Dougherty is the son of J. Hamp-day Dougherty former Water Couple.

Mr. Dougherty former Water Couple.

Misses Eugene Rand, Phebe Davies, her should be described and. Participation to-day for the participation of Paul Dougherty and Marion Brown. Ralph Romaine will act as best man.

Miss Catherine Lawrence Richardson, daughter of the late George H. Richardson, will be married to Victor Harris and Mount Vernon, N. Y. June 17.— Mr. Dougherty is the son of J. Hampden Dougherty, former Water Commissioner, who was for years active in the Democratic party in this city. His brother is well known to London and New York theatregoers under the name of Walter Hampden. Miss Clark made ther debut last winter as a professional singer at a concert which she gave in Charles H. Towne. William V. C. Buy, GREENWICH, Conn., June 17.—Edward Weed, a veteran of the civil war, died at his home on Palmer's Hill here early this morning, aged 74 years. Two daugh-

In the autumn before returning to New RARE FIRST EDITIONS TO BE PLACED ON SALE

Two Hundred and Forty-one Lots Will Be Offered at Collectors Club.

At the Collectors Club on Thursday afternoon Scott & O'Shaughnessy will afternoon Scott & O'Shaughnessy will dispose of a smail collection of first editions and miscellaneous books. Among the 241 lots are rare first editions of the works of Thomas Bailey Aldrich, William Cullen Bryant, a number of editions of the works of Bret Harte, as well as first editions of the works of Oliver Wendell Holmes, Nathaniel Hawthorne, William Dean Howells, Henry W. Longfellow, James Russell Loweil, Ralph Waldo Emerson and J. G. Whitter, and Mrs. Henry H. Hollister has arrived to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hollister Pease, who gave a dinner in her

Other interesting lots in this sale are the Aubrey Beardsley illustrations of "The Story of Venus and Tannhaeuser." of which only 300 copies were printed for private circulation; an edition of "Robinson Crusce," published in 1722 in den Marriage Ceremony.

BAR HARBOR, Me., June 17.—It was summer home that Mrs. Astor had absolutely no statement to make regarding her reported engagement to William K.

Bride of Yacht Builder.

Donald Mitchell Baker, was best man. For many years a comic opera star of the original Chimmie Fadden, died today in the General Hospital at Ashtabula after an operation. He had gone to the hospital from his summer home the hospital from his summer home. Fadden's Roost, near Unionville, Ohio.

Bride of Yacht Builder.

Mr. Honner was 53 years old and was the star of the hospital from his summer home. Fadden's Roost, near Unionville, Ohio.

MRS. GERALDYN REDMOND.

Prominent Socially.

Johnston L. and Rowland L. Redmond, and a sister, the Countess de Laugier Villars.

convent ilemont irch of emony sister, urfell, best best convent in the Central High School. Perhaps his best known literary work is "Chatterton," a play produced by Julia Marlowe in 1895, and "The Ragged Earl," produced by Joseph Haworth in 1895, and "The Ragged Earl," produced by Andrew Mack in 1891. He published several works of fiction and books of poems.

Franklin H. Well.

Va. Arthur B. Clark, St. Louis; E. C. Johnson, Chicago.

McAlpin—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. James, Norfolk, Va.; James B. Harris, Wilkeshare, Pa; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wilbon, New Beaford, Mass.

Wolcott—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Keeley, Chicago: Mrs. L. B. Hessler, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Am Alexander, San Francisco.

Vanderbilt—Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. King, John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Am Alexander, San Francisco.

Vanderbilt—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Keeley, Chicago: Mrs. L. B. Hessler, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Am Francisco.

Vanderbilt—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Keeley, Chicago: Mrs. L. B. Hessler, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Am Francisco.

Vanderbilt—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Keeley, Chicago: Mrs. L. B. Hessler, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Am Mrs. Henry F. King, Chicago: Mrs. L. B. Hessler, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Am Mrs. He. C. Wilkeshare, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Am Mrs. He. C. Wilkeshare, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. He. C. Wilkeshare, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. King, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. King, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Richards, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Sydney, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Richards, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Wolkeshare, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Philadelphia; John Deschamps, Philade

DETROIT, June 17 .- Franklin H. Walker, Hiram Walker & Sons, Ltd., the Walker-ville distillers, and several other large at her home, 1027 Fifth avenue, Marian Nelson C. Williams.

Nelson C. Williams, 73 years old, ifelong resident of Gravesend, died Thursday at his home, 2645 Cropsey of the town under John Y. McKane. He was a member of the Gravesend Exemp Firemen's Association and of Kedror Lodge, No. 803, F. & A. M. Three sis-

Capt, Charles A. Allen.

NEWARK, N. J., June 17.—Capt. Charles J. Allen, formerly a newspaper winter.

Win son and a daughter, Mrs. William Stephen Van Nostrand.

The wedding of Miss Kathleen Howard and Edward Kellogg Baird will take Stephen H. Van Nostrand, aged 68, dies

Mr. and Mrs. Julien Townsend Davies, early years in the West, who will be married to Henry Sellers in Bridesburg, Mahoney City and Ash-

William R. Quade, a merchant of Mount Vernon, died suddenly of acute indigesion in his store, 65 South Fourth avenue, to-day.

Edward Weed.

ters survive.

ALFRED B. TUGMAN. If communicate with his family in Europe would hear of something greatly

MRS. CHOATE HOSTESS ON 80TH BIRTHDAY Gives Dinner at Lenox-Colonists Entertain Many Guests.

LENOX, Mass., June 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Choate gave a dinner last night in honor of Mrs. Choate, who celebrated her eightieth birthday.

Mrs. Henry H. Hollister has arrived to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hol-lister Pease, who gave a dinner in her honor to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl De Gersdorff are entertaining Mrs. William Greer and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Gilbert of New York at Stockbridge.

John Shepard, Jr., is entertaining Francis Ouimet, former amateur golf champion, at Sheffield. They played over the Stockbridge course to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Banyar Clarkson will entertain the Tyringham Valley Garden Club Monday evening.

Club Monday evening.

Miss Rosalie Goodman will be hostess for the Lenox Garden Club Council at Yokun Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gardner Gould of South Orange have opened North o' Woods, their country place on the Pittsfield road.

Miss Mabel T. Boardman, president of the American Red Cross Society, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. Murray

Crane, in Dalton.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bok and Carey
W. Bok of Philadelphia, who are touring, registered at Curtis Hotel.

Miss M. Symphorosa Bristed will have charge of the annual water sports at Lake Mahkeenac by the Lenox Junior tennis association. The sports will be tennis association. The sports will be held Monday, July 3. E. Percy Bramwell is a guest of Mrs. James R. Jesup at Curtis Hotel. Mrs. Lewis L. Delafield and the Misses Charlotte and Emily Delafield arrived at Heaton Hall. Stockbridge.

Alle. Daurine to Wed American. Special Cable Bespatch to THE SUN.

Paris, June 17.—The engagement of Violet Dauriac to Cyrus Wood Thomas, an architect of St. Paul, Minn., is an-

ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS.

Breslin-S. R. Eaton, Detroit; Morton Wakeley, Omaha, Biltmore—P. T. Clay, San Francisco; Jeseph C. Farrell, Albany, N. T. Vanderbilt—William E. Camp. Bridgeport, Conn.; J. Griess, Cleveland. Plaza-Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Revell, Chicago; John B. Kitchen, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. William M. Garland, San Francisco.

Claridge—Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Lane. Bos-ton; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gehr, Alexandria, Va.: Arthur B. Clark, St. Louis; E. C. Johnson, Chicago.

June 17, 1916, at St. James's Episco-pal Church, Great Barrington, Mass. Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Church, to Delano de Windt, son of Mr. Heyliger A. de Windt of Winnetka, Ill. at her home, 1027 Fifth avenue, Marian Averell Clark, daughter of Mr. and Gomez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Edgar J. Nathan, to Henry S. Hen-HOAR-BROWN -On Saturday, June 17. 1916, at Zion Episcopal Church, Dobbs Ferry on Hudson, by the Rev. Stanley Brown Sermon, Dorothy Emma, daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin J. Brown, to John Hoar, son of the late Samuel PYNE-BLAIR .- On Friday, June 16, 44 St. John's Chapel, Bernardsville, N. J., by the Rev. Themas A. Conover, Florence Ledyard Blair, daughter of of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ledyard Blair, to H. Rivington Pyne.

DIED.

Hoar of Concord, Mass.

BACON.-Charles, aged 73. Services "I E FUNERAL CHURCH," 241 West Twenty-third (Campbell Building) Sunday, 2 c'clock. Auspices Actors'

Donegan, age 62. Chapel Stephen Mer-ritt Burial and Cremation Company, 181 Eighth avenue, corner Eighteenth street. Time later. GOOKIN - Suddenly, at West Chop. Mass. June 16, 1916, Charles Bailey Gookin, in the sixty-eighth year of his age, son

DONEGAN -- On June 16, James English

Funeral services at Emanuel Church, Boston, Monday, June 19, at 10 A. M. Interment Monday, June 19, at Mount Anburn, Boston, McKEON.—John C. McKeon, vice-president of the Park National Bank, Friday afternoon, June 16, at his home at Hempstead, L. I. aged 56 years.

Hempstead, L. I., aged so years.
Funeral services at the family residence,
Hempstead, at 4 o'clock P. M. to-day,
June 18. Kindly omit flowers.
REDMOND:—At her residence, 701 Park avenue, New York, June 17, 1916, Estelle Livingston, wife of Geraldyn Redmond and daughter of the late Johnmend and daughter of the late John-ston and Silvie M. Livingston.

Puneral mass will be said on Monday,
June 19, at the French Church of St.
Vincent de Paul, Twenty-third street and Sixth avenue, at 10 A. M. The funeral train to Tivoli, N. Y., leaves
Grand Central Station at 11:30 A. M. Grand Central Station at 11:30 A. M 7.—George Returning, arrives about 6 P. M. It son of Mr. 21 Ward SATTERLEE.—On Friday morning, June 16, 1916, at her residence, 103 East Eighty-sixth street, New York city, in her seventy-seventh year, Jane Law-rence, wife of the late Henry Yates Satterlee, first Bishop of Washi Funeral services at Calvary C Twenty-first street and Fourth avenue on Monday, June 1., at 9:30 A. M. In terment at Washington, D. C. Wash ington and Boston papers please copy Y.—At Westfield, Mass., Saturda morning. Sarah A. wife of John T.

Funeral services Monday, 2:80 P. M., at

UNDERTAKERA

to his advantage.

B'WAY FrankE. Campbell w. 23d St.

of the late Samuel and Martha Ball